Background: Our relations with former Czechoslovakia, and with the Czech Republic, have always been warm, friendly and have a long history. In the medieval ages the Kingdom of Bohemia (now a part of Czech Republic) traded with India in precious goods and Indian spices. The Czech Bata Works was established in Batanagar, Calcutta in 1930s. Skoda Auto established itself in India in 2001. The Czechoslovak Consulate opened in Bombay in 1920 and later in Calcutta. Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore visited Czechoslovakia in 1921 and 1926; Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose visited between 1933 and 1938; and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru accompanied by his daughter Indira Gandhi visited Prague in 1938.

Diplomatic relations were established with former Czechoslovakia on November 18, 1947 and have been maintained with high level visits and interactions since then. Former Indian Presidents Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Giani Zail Singh and R. Venkataraman visited Czechoslovakia in 1965, 1983 and 1988 respectively. PM Jawaharlal Nehru paid a visit in 1955; PM Smt. Indira Gandhi in August 1972; and PM Rajiv Gandhi in August 1986.

High level visits were maintained after the Czech Republic came into existence subsequent to the peaceful bifurcation of Czechoslovakia on 1 January 1993 into Czech Republic and Slovakia after a political transition in 1989. Foreign Minister Jiri Dienstbier made the first high level contact after the Velvet Revolution in November 1990. The VVIP Visits since then include:

From Indian Side: President Shri Shankar Dayal Sharma in October 1996 ; Vice President Shri M. Hamid Ansari in June 2010; and President Shri Ram Nath Kovind in September, 2018.

From Czech side: President Mr. Vaclav Havel in February 1994; PM Mr. Milos Zeman in March 2001; President Mr. Vaclav Klaus in November 2005; PM Mr. Jiri Paroubek in January 2006; and PM Mr. Andrej Babis in January, 2019.

EAM level visits: Shri S.M. Krishna in June, 2009; Czech Foreign Minister Mr. Lubomir Zaoralek visited India in December, 2016; Czech Foreign Minister Mr. Tomas Petricek visited India in January, 2020

International Cooperation: We cooperate internationally including in Export Control regimes like Missile Technology Control Regime (MTCR), Wassenaar, Hague Code of Conduct and the Australia Group. We have agreed towards cooperation in fight against terrorism and in strengthening global non-proliferation efforts. Czech Republic supports India's full membership of Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG) and permanent membership of India in the UN Security Council (UNSC).
